WEAR YOUR TAGS

Whole Town Will Be Decorated To-Day to Help Swell Nursing Fund.

ANXIOUS TO BREAK RECORD

Believed That Total Collections Will Far Exceed Those of Last Year.

it to carry on the great charit, there were no eats. I think all of the ork during another year. There cooks went off to a suffragette meet-discount on this charity. The ting that hasn't let out yet."

of raising subscriptions is not.

The Widow is Festive. big total, and a big total is needed.

him feel ashamed to be without one, and even the meanest man in town lacks the nerve to pass a station unless he is properly marked. So in the end everybody is decorated. Within the past few weeks the public has been charity. These nurses go anywhere and everywhere under a physician's direction without pay. Foor children. to life and health and strength. Your dime and your friend's dollar may are going to buy a tag at the first id office buildings not the greater rearrayed like the multitude was shown aryayed like the multitude was shown a year ago in the case of a young man, without one cent. He could not enter his office without being asked to buy, he could not buy because he did not have a single penny. So he went cut into Capitol Square to think. Presently, a little dog wagged its tail by his feet. On the collar of that little dog was a red tag. The young man clipped it off, fastened it in his button hole and went into his office, proudly wearing his colors. While that was a queer case, it showed the feeling of everybody, as every man seemed to realize that he could not afford to be spotted as a shyster. To-day he will more than atone for his sin. year ago in the case of a young man. more than atone for his sin.

Tags sell for any sum, but is there man who would hand over 10 cents for one and wait for his change? He can get it if he asks, but will he ask?

When the day's work is over the boxes will be sent to banking headquarters, where bank clerks will work late into the night, counting it. The association, and everybody else, in fact is hoping that the sum total this year will break all records, and all records will be broken if the public responds as cheerfully as the association ex-

MARCH A BAD ACTOR

wind whistled along at an average verification of the prelocity of 11.1 miles per hour, the predivision headquarters. Form Sam times, as every one knows, it rose to the dignity of a gale, and on last Thursday the velocity was forty-eight turent for the month was $292 miles
The average temperature was 45, the lowest since 1996, when it went to 42 ginis Regiment.

In the predivision headquarters. Form Sam
the forenoon and afternoon.
All railways south of the Potomac
Those who were detailed by Adjutantification
The last meeting of the order was held in Atlanta, Ga., and it was dedivision headquarters.
The forenoon and afternoon.
Those who were detailed by Adjutantification Colonel Thomas J. Nottingham, of division headquarters.
The forenoon and afternoon.
The forenoon and afternoon.
All railways south of the forenoon and east of the Mississippi were repretent of the forenoon and afternoon.
The forenoon and afterno

"BUSTED" HIS HEAD

Fleming Taylor, colored, was arrest. This colored, was arrest. The colored arrest. This colored was arrest. The colored was arrest. The colored was arrest. The colored was arrest. The colored was arrest. np at his head. James's head was usted and the lamp also was same department the militiamen represst. Luke's Hospital, sent, and will receive instructions of operated on to-day.

Joe Fleming fell into the toils on the actual operation of a campaign charge of having cut Elijah Curley Upon the return of these officers and a charge of having cut Elijah Curley with a knife.
Oscar Lockett, colored, was arrested suspicion of having sold liquor eral Sale said that he hopes to be able hospital, nort a license, and Robert Ross to send a larger number of officers in without a license, and Robert Ross, to send a larg colored, was arrested on a warrant the next relay. charging him with that offense. Hezekiah Johnson, colored, was taken in on complaint of Washington Hezekiah had said that Hezekiah had solor at him with a pistol leaded with

Charged With Larceny.

Floyd Throckmorton was arrested yesterday in Henrico county on a charge of the larceny of a watch from a local lewelry house. He is alleged to have bought it upon the instalment plan and pawned it without making family were in the living-room downfull payment. The watch was subjected to climber early last night entered the got it from hock, and failed to return home of W. W. Burke, 306 South Belthard the control of the town, or of a class agin. An culberson will conclude the with an address.

Mrs. J. T. Jobson, president a founder of the league, will preside. It to Throckmorton. Perkins has been videre Street, and ransacked all the the window was by climbing the perch charge of grand larceny preferred by

THE SAVINGS BANK OF RICHMOND

DO THIS NOW.

Simply make up your mind to save one-tenth to one-quarter of what you earn. Stick to it six months. The rest will be easy

3 per cent. compound interest. 1117 East Main Street.

SKILLIT BACK AGAIN FROM. HOSPITAL AT MONTMORENCI

IN WORTHY CAUSE Tells Nish and Neighbors That Only Food They Gave Him in 21 Days Was Glass of Oxygen Soup and an Antiseptic Toothpick.

> der treatment for acute alcoholism. "Kiss me, mether," he said to Nish, give it, just for the pleasure of hearwho met him at the gate. "Pin a red tag of the force of the feed me, Nisho, feed me, for believe me old girl, they kept me in that hospital doc came and asked me if I would novel and simple, but it gives y person in the street an opportuntion help without being forced to give than he can afford. The dimes, even baked hens and three hams guarters and the deliars make up greatly total, and a big total is needed.

The Widow is Festive.

The Widow is Festive.

When the neighbors and a reporter lasted I lived like a Dolgarouki.

"But some of the things they did make me terribly sad. You know how we have been preaching about conservation and preservation of our natural.

Being in a festive frame of mind, the Dumbarton widow put a white lace burnels and a big total is needed.

The Widow is Festive.

When the neighbors and a reporter lasted I lived like a Dolgarouki.

"But some of the things they did make me terribly sad. You know how we have been preaching about conservation and preservation of our natural.

The Widow is Festive.

When the neighbors and a reporter lasted I lived like a Dolgarouki.

"But some of the things they did make me terribly sad. You know how we have been preaching about conservation and preservation of our natural.

The Widow is Festive.

When the neighbors and a reporter lasted I lived like a Dolgarouki.

"But some of the things they did make me terribly sad. You know how we have been preaching about conservation and preservation of our natural.

The Widow is Festive.

When the neighbors and a reporter lasted I lived like a Dolgarouki.

"But some of the things they did make me terribly sad. You know how we have been preaching about conservation and preservation of our natural.

The Widow is Festive.

When the neighbors and a reporter lasted I lived like a Dolgarouki.

"But some of the things they did make me terribly sad. You know how we have been preaching about conservation of our natural.

The Widow is Festive.

cut my throat. But if you want to barton, hear me, suppose you cut out the talk.

night because he had a bum foot."

"You remember what Mr. Dooley said," interrupted the widow. "He said that if the scientists had more science and the doctors had more Christianity, the patient might get well, provided he had a good nurse."

"Then if you are through I will and go about the ward in a harem skirt, on skates. Mix me another."

Nish went over to feel Bill's pulse. "Kene!" he cried, as she quit counting. "Now there's Larkin." he went on. "How I wish that boy had enough political influence to get him a job as an interne. Wouldn't he look swell in a

START FOR TEXAS

Reach Mexican Border by

Wednesday Morning.

First Detail From Virginia Will Railroad Operators From South-

These officers will spend two weeks in Texas, exclusive of the time occu-

The detail which left last night did Officers Tiller and Martin, of Hen-

FAMILY REMAINED BELOW

HOUSE RANSACKED WHILE .

other detail will be named by the Ad-

Nothing was known of the robbery

Looking fine, though a trifle pale and regulated my pulse by that, but and weak, Colonel Bill Skillit got back; do you know it beat faster every time to Hennerracker yesterday, having est caped from the hospital at Montmo-mother, let me tell you—those purses mother, let me tell you—those purses renci, Texas, where he had been un-der treatment for acute alcoholism. used to draw straws to see who would

His Friend, the Mooushiner.

Last Year.

Old girl, they kept me in that hospital twenty-one days, and the only food they gave me was half a beer glass of oxygen soup, an antiseptic toothpick and a cup of ether. I will say this and the receipts to-night may hat the Instructive Visiting Association will have funds with frewater, and so I got mine. But Association will have funds with frewater, and so I got mine. But there were no eats. I think all of the poese you make a will and leave me pose you make a will and leave me that jug in your grip? Sure enough, Moon didn't come back, and I qualified handkerchief on her head to make it alcohol they wasted by rubbing it on Tag Stations Everywhere.

collowing the old custom, the city be divided into station sections, a committee of women in charge ach. By noon no man can afford be seen without a tag. It makes feel ashamed to be without one,

Only Way He Can Stop.

"The only way the doctors can stop take part in 'Pinafore'?" said the widand from drinking." Bill replied, "is to ow, who leads some society at Dum-

Etation you pass, and if you are generous and well fixed you will buy other tags at other stations.

Math Street, as a rule turns in the largest sums. Then Broad Street comes along with its big share, but the stations in front of the down town banks and office buildings not the greater re mear me, suppose you cut out the talk.

Nish has been uneasy about me, and Nish has a right to know how I get snapped. "I hope I may drop dead if you don't remind me of a 3 o'clock of food. Then I couldn't sleep because there was a Christian Scientist in the next room, who hollered all night because he had a burn foot."

"You remember what Mr."

DISCUSS WORK

ern Lines Hold Meeting in Richmond.

The attack was entirely unexpected.

laness, and it was a great surprise to Raid Negro Gamblers.

whereby he could be reached.

Mrs. Gill Ready for Cupid Special

All Day Long Telephone Reminds Her That There'll Be Many Weddings This Year.

Will the audience kindly move up closer to the platform while the gentleman explains what will happen on April 17? Now, you boys must get out April 17? Now, you boys must get out of the way and let those girls hear. Can't you behave once? And that wagon may run over somebody—look out, there, you duffer. The gentlemanly ushers will appear after the next act with tickets. This year the show will be the biggest, the best ever put under canvas, and as it is for a worthy under canvas, and as it is for a worthy cause, you are requested to remain until the finish and then get your tickets early to avoid the rush.

With these few remarks you are reminded that Mrs. Gill will open the matrimonial season with her Cupid's Special to Washington on April 17, and that all the profits, after the railroad has picked out its share of the coin, will go to the Male Orphan Asylum Mrs. Gill's events are applied. Mrs. Gill's excursions are spring fix-tures. She has found that in the spring

At the orphanage yesterday, Mrs Gill talked of her plans. "It would surprise you," she said, "to know how many messages 1 have received over see any peason for so much lestore.

"When the ambulance took me up to the door," said the colonel, "I was wheeled into the room, and a nurse came in to get my pedigree. I gave her my name. "Married?" she asked Within the lic has been blect of this to anywhere a physician's oor children, oor children, where the door, "suggested the widow "Seems to me," suggested the widow "That they might have operated on you to care that thirst."

see any peason for so much lestore.

"When the ambulance took me up to the door," said the colonel, "I was fierce.

"Then once they decided that I would have to let up on whiskey, and you capht to have heard me beg them snakes that crawled all over the cell ing to come down and bite me. Finally, I got better. I started to walk about, but the nurse made me sit in a reclling chair. "If you try to walk colonel, she said, you will stagger, and they might have operated on you to cure that thirst."

"Seems to me," suggested the widow "that they might have operated on you to cure that thirst."

"Seems to me," suggested the widow "that they might have operated on you to cure that thirst."

"Seems to me," suggested the widow "that they might have operated on you to cure that thirst."

"Seems to me," suggested the widow "that they might have operated on you to cure that thirst."

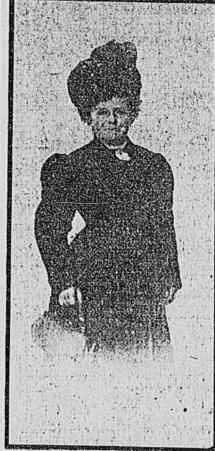

"Seems to me," suggested the widow "that they might have operated on you to cure that thirst."

"Seems to me," suggested the widow "that they might have operated on you to cure that thirst."

"Seems to me," suggested the widow "the nurse made me sit in a reclling chair. "If you try to walk colonel, she said, you will stagger, and they will stagger, and they will stagger, and they might think you've been drinking." So I rolled."

"Then once they decided that I trip. Some of them seem to think would have to let up on whiskey, and with the case, but the Washington license bureau trip. The would have to let up on whiskey, and a marriage license is issued with every ticket. This, of course, is not the case, but the Washing > tional, but I tell them that it means money for this home, and the home 'Yes," Mrs. Gill answered somebody at the other end of the line, "yes, the train goes on Easter Monday. You are going with your beau? You make lotte. The idea of these harem skirts frightens me. No. I can't pay a commission on all the brides you bring, but bring a friend, and remember that may be several preachers on the train. Pressers of Richmond. tainly nice of him. "Some people think that our excursions-or rather what the newspapers say-is a bit too sensayou come along? That's too bad, but never mind, there will be many blissnever mind, there will be many onse-ful matches, and Cupid's Special will make a record this year. A New York make a record this year. A New York had a sgreat idea in his head that had to come out, else he would burst have had letters from other towns ask-But I am not in the match-making got up some 'kind of scenery, an business. I run these excursions to help wanted to try it out so I agreed to the home, and if they make people hap-py, then I am happy, too, and my boys are happy and everybody else ought to be happy. There's lots of work and responsibility attached to it, but the more people we carry the more good things we can buy for the poor little That Way All Day Long.

"It is that way all day long," said will be many Easter Monday weddings Mrs. Gill to the reporter. "I get mes-in Washington this year."

FELL DOWN STAIRS AND FRACTURED HIS SKULL

in the hospital department, Samuel W. McDowell, sixty years old, of 29 North

Turman, who responded, took the man nto the First Station for a preliminary

Once an inmate and twice a patient | was seen to be in a dying condition. He never regained consciousness.

McDowell, sixty years old, of 29 North
McDowell sixty years old, of 29 North
M such freedom as he could gain by rent-ing a room and living in privacy. He fell and fractured his skull a year ago, but entirely recovered. The last time examination. His skull was found to he went to the City Home, he went to have been severely fractured, and he stay.

CHARGES AGAINST TOURIST TRAINS MARCH A BAD ACTOR Director Evan"s Dope Sheet Tells About Some High Winds. According to the "past performance" sheet of the Weather Bureau, just deped out by Director Evans, March and progress there, left last night by according to the records of other steed up fully to the records of other years, though no marks were broken For the entire thirty-one days the For the entire thirty-one days the click in those dark of the records of other wild brown hat a find left. I had a play, but this was a new one cently organized Southeastern Association the missing them the wild brown hat a find left. I had left the back in those dary one the form on me. I had left the thirty than the number of the order of Railroad Telestom to see that a little mald, with no district the order of Railroad Telestom the order of Railroad Telestom the order of Railroad Telestom them the order of Railroad Telestom them the order

To-Day.

Serious charges, it was learned last night, will probably be brought to-day precipitation of 2.15 inches, this being somewhat below normal, but nearing somewhat below normal, but nearing an inch more than last year. There were twelve clear days, nine partly cloudy, and ten cloudy. Rain or snow fell on thirteen days. Four killings two heavy and two light frosts. Heginnent.

Western: H. G. Alexander, of Charlotte, Southern: S. A. Davis, of South Boston, Southern: R. C. Pender, of Greensboro, Southern: E. L. Sommers, of Keidsville, Southern: J. H. Williams, of Wilson, Atlantic Coast Line; J. K. McCotter, of Richmond, Atlantic Coast Line; J. K. Was given by a citizen, and a street Line of the offense, of which the detective is alleged to be guilty, was of Southern: R. C. Pender, of Greensboro, So ton. Southern; R. C. Pender, of Greens- the detective is alleged to be guilty, was timated by the Seaboard that travel Sommers, of not made public, owing to the fact that has been heavier by one-third than ever it. Williams, official action had not been taken vesby show fell on thirteen days. Four mond, Medical Corps, Virginia voiun-killing; two heavy and two light frosts teers, detailed for duty with the Richwere recorded. There was half on one mond Light Infantry Blues' Battalion mond, Fredericksburg and Potomac; F. gate and order Detective Wren to his G. Smoke, of Tampa, Atlantic Coast home.

TEMPERANCE RALLY

OPERATED ON AT ST. LUKE'S Prominent Workers to Speak at Big

Luke's Hospital, where he will be feature of an institute of the Woman's Temperance League, of America which will take place Friday morning at 10 Mr Allan had never complained of any o'clock in the Union Station Methodist Church.

jutant. General Referring to this, Gen- his friends when he was hurried to the Rev. R. H. Potts, the pastor, will conduct the devotional exercises in the morning, while there will be an by Mrs. W. F. Beazley; address by Mrs. the funeral to-day of Dr. Seamon A. Katle Waller Barrett, national super- Knapp, chief of the Farmers' Co-oper-

Mrs. R. H. Potts will conduct the devotional exercises at the afternoon ession. Rev. J. R. Johnson will deliver an address; Mrs W. L. Tyler will an address, while a paper will be read of which he was the head, has 525 field While most of the members of the of the town, or of a class akin. An Culberson will conclude the meeting States from Virginia to Texas. Colonel

Mrs. J. T. Jobson, president and answer a rooms on the upper floor. He worked silently, and managed to get away with $25 in currency, a lady's gold officer Andrews, of the Second District, in the county fall yesterday, unable to Furnish Ball.

As soon as the first alarm had set. C. H. Kinney, who was arrested Satwith $25 in currency, a lady's gold officer Andrews, of the Second District, in the county fall yesterday, unable to marked with the letters "S. S." and a property. One of the rooms he entered thoroughness of the work. There was hat retained L. O. Wendenburg as coat. They were turned over to headproperty. One of the rooms be entered thoroughness of the work. There was has retained L. O. Wendenburg as was occupied by a boarder, but it was nothing more to note, for the man did counsel, not known how much was stolen, as not leave his autress or any message

Nothing was known of the robbery until the family prepare to retire, and then, as each went to his room, a scene of confusion presented itself to every eve. The introder had overlooked nothing. He went about his business methodically, and left no trace. He may be the suburba. "sock for E H Hunter on Citizenship and less" burglar who has been the talk the Dignity of Lober,"

Emancipation Celebration.

The colored people of Richmond gates from Henrico county. Mr. Williams explained last night that he would be unable to consult of business methodically, and left no the features will be an address by the suburba. "sock for E H Hunter on Citizenship and C W Throckmorton and T. P. Davie of on suspicion of having committed a felony.

They were opponents two years ago. Mr. Williams Out of Ruce

Than in Former Years.

Marking the close of the most successful season in the history of either against Detective Sergeant Wren, the oldest detective, both in point of years and in service on the police force. The Coast Line will make their last trip The warmest day was the 27th, when the mercury went up to 74, and the coldest on the 16th, when the thermoneter registered 29. Total snowfall amounted to four inches, with a total presipitation of 2.15 inches, this besing somewhat below normal, but nearly an inch more than last year.

Among those present yesterday were captured and in service on the police force. The allegations against the officer are of such a nature that Sergeant Wren will make their last trip. Contain Edward L. Slaughter, of Georgia; L. E. Hicks, of Craigsville, Chesapeake and Ohio, C. B. Lane, of Chesapeake and Ohio, C. B. Lane, of Captain Charles M. East, of Staunterland to four inches, with a total of the First Virginia Captain Jennings C. Wise, of Rich.

Captain Edward L. Slaughter, of Georgia; L. E. Hicks, of Craigsville, Chesapeake and Ohio, C. B. Lane, of Chesapeake and Ohio, C. B. Lane, of Captain Charles M. East, of Staunterland to four inches, with a total of the First Virginia Captain Jennings C. Wise, of Rich.

Captain Edward L. Slaughter, of Georgia; L. E. Hicks, of Craigsville, Chesapeake and Ohio, C. B. Lane, of Chesapeake and Ohio, C. B. Lane

> Next Sunday, the Seaboard will put on in place of the special, another fast train to be known as No. 33, which will run through to some point in North Carolina, probably Monroe. Going South, it will pass here at 11:10 P. M., and returning as No. 32, will arrive at 7:25 A. M. No. 81, now due here at 11:35 P. M., will be changed up to 9:25 P. M., on the south-bound trip, but there will be little change on the return run.
>
> In a free-for-all fight over a woman yesterday morning. Frank Randolph, colored, was stabbed through the left lung by one of his two assailants, and left for dead on the street. The fight occurred in Penitentiary Bottom. There was no one to afford aid to the injured trip, but there will be little change dressed by the internes, and he was showing signs of improvement, and it is believed now that he will reon in place of the special, another fast

DR. S. A. KNAPP DEAD

Colonel Sandy Goes to Washington to Attend Funeral.

Colonel T. O. Sandy, of Burkeville, was in the city yesterday on his way to Washington, where he will attend him with the weapon. He said that it for election to the office. intendent of the Florence Crittenden ative Demonstration Association of the Mission, and an address by Rev. J. T. Department of Agriculture, Dr. Knapp, who died on Saturday, was a member of the United Agricultural Board of Virginia, and had made frequent trips to this State to give practical talks on farming subjects. The Farmers' Cosing, Rev. D. Clay Lilly will also make operative Demonstration Association, Sandy spoke in the highest terms of Dr. Knapp's work for the farming interests and especially of his efforts in Virginia.

quarters for identification.

KNOX HATS

Are distinctive and exclusive. They lead in style

We are sole agents for Richmond.

Gans-Rady Company

Roebuck Tells Why He Wrote Play

Sixteen-Year-Old Blancy Answers People Who Want to Hear About Beatrice.

BY DANIEL DE VON, JR.

(George E. Rochuck.) A few years ago everybody that knew ne called me an egregious blockhead Possibly it was due to the fact that I was without a doubt the most accom plished brick-presser in the city o Richmond. It was while holding this title that the sleeping ambitions of my shapeless cranium were awakening into activity. It was then that I started to work on an idea that had all the prospects of a brilliant failure. Then came the most precarious moments o eventless career.

You see I was famous for lying un der the big cedars at the home and having all kinds of dreams. I wanter to go to Africa and hunt lions and tigers and be called "The Great Hunt-So you can imagine the surpris I will have to ask Mr. Warren Taylor of my friends when I told them that I had resolved to resign my dignified office as president of "The United Brick Pearman Comes on Stage. The first man I told was Pearman and straightway help me out. Now Pearman was on or be contemplating suicide within a week. He told me that it was not his fault that the 'dea was there. He had wanted to try it out; so I agreed to let him fix mine up that way when the time came. So Pearman and I stated out on a trip that would have made one of Richard's trips to the Holy Land look like 2 cents' worth of hot tamales when you haven't had any-

We shook hands on the corner of Twelfth and Main Streets and swore by everything above and below that we wouldn't stop until "Beatrice of the Cumberlands" had been given its first performance and Pearman's new scenery tried out. Two months later, on the night of September 29, I had the pleasure of facing over 1,600 people en grande tenue, and told them that I thanked them very much for that I thanked them very much for the wasn't much bigger than I was, that I thanked them very much for and if it came to a fight I felt sure t coming. You see I was due to say a lot more, but somehow I couldn't get the words out of my mouth. It was soak him. So I let loose. such a shame, for I had worked so "Well," I began, "I have written a

Now you w'll say I am not telling you why I wrote "Beatrice." I am going to start right now. I have re- thunder? ceived many letters from people who

Beatrice." So here goes:

The sweet memories of home—of a dark-eyed little playmate I had lett back in those acar old hills! So it came to be that a little maid with

I told Pearman all about my dreams, and he was a ready sympathizer with me and told me that I was a great kid and that I would make a man out "Uh-huh," he grunted, as he finished

He picked up a brickbat and told me man that would give us the loke of to go in and find Leo Wise, and if that $1,000.

GEORGE E. ROEBUCK.

gentleman started any rough house when I had broke the news that I had written a play, he would soak him with his brick. So with Pearman on guard with his brick, I went in an asked for Mr. Wise.

"What can I do for you?" he asked wanted a job.

Armed With a Brick

I could run out of the door, and when play and want to put it on the stage

He looked at me as if he thought was daffy in my upper deck. "Can't say that I savvy. Wha kind of a play is it? A farce comedy a comedy-drama, or is it a blood and I didn't know what he was talking have seen the show asking me to write this little epistle and tell why I wrote "Beatrice." So here goes:

"Uh-huh," he grunted, as he finished kid and that I would make a man out of myself some day. I felt like kissing Pearman when he said that, for it was the first time anybody had told me anything like that for many a long day.

The next evening Pearman and I walked up to the Academy of Music. He picked up a brickhat and told me n the return run.

THOUGH BADLY STABBED, HE WALKED TO HOSPITAL

Changes will be made on the At- kept in the hospital. The Second Sta- cover. tion was notified of the assault, and men were at once set to work, as it was thought that Randolph might die in a few hours.

> Twelfth and Broad Streets, by Police-men Tiller, Whitlock and Bradley. A knife covered with blood was found in the school board and a former st his room, and the officers confronted

C. W. Saunders, of Brookland Dis-Before midday. Willie Branch, col-trict, chairman of the Board of Su-pervisors of Henrico county, will have opposition in the Democratic primary next fall. J. W. Penick, member of visor, has announced his candidacy

W. L. DOUGLAS ESTAB. $3.50& $4 SHOES FOR W. L. Douglas Spring Styles include more Snappy and Up-to-Date Shapes in Oxfords & High Cuts than ever before produced.

W. L. Douglas warrants every pair of his shoes to hold their shape, look and fit better and wear longer than any other make, giving you better value for the money than you can obtain elsewhere.

When you buy W. L. Douglas shoes you will be pleased because of the fit and appearance, and when it comes time for you to purchase another pair you will be more than pleased because the last ones wore so well and gave so much comfort.

BEWARE OF SUBSTITUTES. CAUTION The genuine have W. L. Douglas on the bottom, which protects the wearer against high prices and luferior shoes. REFUSE SUBSTITUTES CLAIMED TO Boys' Shoes, $2 & $2.50 The Best School and Dress Shoes for the Price in America.

BE "JUST AS GOOD." for the Price in America.

If you cannot obtain W. L. Douglas shoes in your town, write for catalog. Those sent direct own factory to wearer, all charges propaid. W. L. DOUGLAS, 152 Spark St., Brockton, Mass. W. L. DOUGLAS, Richmond Store, 623 East Broad Street.